ALLMAN ON CHINA'S BRIDGE

Friends Congratulate Former Chief Officer on Promotion--China Has Few Passengers--Many People Book On Local Boats--Ikala For Oil

Making his first trip here as a captain, Richard Allman brought the Pacific Mail steamer China safely to port early this morning. As soon as the pilot had her alongside the dock a rush was made for the new commander and he was pumppounded by his friends. Allman took it all very modestly but was pleased all the same.

As chief mate on the Korea he won himself many friends and also during his term as captain of the steamer Panama he made a name for himself. It will be remembered that the first time he took the Panama cut she ran into very heavy weather and things looked as though it was all up with the little ship. Water was pouring through a seam down below and no one would venture down to stop the leak.

Then Allman went himself and lacked a temporary patch in position. On arrival at San Francisco the passengers gave him a testimonial and strongly recommended him to the company. He is wished every success in his new position.

SMALL PASSENGER LIST.

The China brought a small passenger list, only six people stopping off at this port, while there are comparatively only a few going through to the Orient.

Among the arrivals here was Miss Irene Jeffers, who comes to be married. As the dock officials went up the gangway this morning they were blinded by clouds of rice, for Miss Jeffers was trying to get on shore. Those on the ship were determined that she should not get away without some little remembrance, so they got quantities of rice and the decks were thick with the commodity.

The through passengers number forty-eight cabin, four second and twenty-six in the steerage. Included among the latter are a Japanese and two Chinamen who are being deported. The vessel will also take a number of deportees from here.

The China has 503 tons of through cargo and will take on board 850 tons of coal from this port. She leaves tomorrow morning in continuation of her voyage to the Orient.

Included among the through passengers are a number of people going out to join the Burma Oil company.

SONOMA TOMORROW.

The Oceanic steamer Sonoma, which makes her first appearance here tomorrow since she was remodeled, was 512 miles off port at eight o'clock last night and will come alongside the Brewer wharf early tomorrow morning.

She is bringing sixty-four cabin passengers and fourteen in the steerage. Seventy-four sacks of mail are on board and she has general freight amounting to 2165 tons.

IKALA FOR OIL

The British steamer Ikala arrived in port this morning en route from Mukilteo to Australia with a cargo of lumber.

She is an oil burner and requires 8000 barrels from her agents, the Union Oil company. Owing to the ballast tanks not being pumped out before the vessel came into the harbor, it is possible that she may have to go out again before the oil can finally be taken in, as the empty oil tanks on board have been filled with water. She will get away about Saturday for Melbourne.

ANOTHER SKIPPER GONE.

Captain Aaron M. Burns, one of the old pioneers of California, who was a prominent figure there during the days following the discovery of gold, has passed away at the Bellevue hotel at the age of 86 years.

PASSENGERS ARRIVED.

Per Str. China, from San Francisco June 6.—Miss R. Akana, A. A. Durant, Dr. L. C. Frost, F. Farrar, Miss Irene Jeffers, F. S. McAllister.

SELL FAMOUS BOATS.

VANCOUVER, May 28.—The Casco, a vessel built at great expense by the late Mr. Tevis and used by the famous novelist, Robert Louis Stevenson for his South Sea cruise, will be among the sealers of the Victoria sealing fleet which is shortly to be sold by order of the Dominion Government. Another of the boats is the Vera, formerly the notorious smuggler Halcyon. A former New York to be taken into account by the traveling public. So many and so great are the improvements which have been introduced of late years for the purpose of assisting navigation that a steamer of the size of the Titanic is as handy as the smallest cargo boat. One might even say that she handles, for many small vessels are anything but easy to manoeuvre. Moreover, so far as the Titanic is concerned, it is manifestly ridiculous to bring up the manageability theory at all, for when a vessel rushes without warning into an iceberg, not all the handiness in the world could affect the position.

SUGAR WAITING.

Purser Penke of the Helene reports the following sugar waiting shipment: Kukuhale 4500, Honokaa 10, 200, Paaunau 6300, Paaunio 25,700, Ockala 12,000.
